To: All Bell Craft and Services Members

Subject: Bell Post Retirement Benefits Arbitration (update)

The Bell PRB Arbitration case concluded on Tuesday August 30, 2011 with final arguments from both parties.

We are now waiting for the Arbitrator's ruling which could take a minimum of six to eight weeks.

I will forward the decision to all Locals once received.

Update:

The decision has not been received yet. There are lots of rumours floating around but be clear: as of 15:15 this afternoon, Wednesday October 19, 2011 the decision is not out yet. I will issue a bulletin as soon as we do receive the decision from the Arbitrator.

In solidarity
